1. Articles will be sold in convenient lots.
2. The highest bidder shall ordinarily be the purchaser, but the officer conducting the sale can reject any bid or stop the sale at any stage without assigning any reason to the intending purchasers.
3. Immediately after a lot is knocked down to the successful bidder, he shall sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him in a book provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought the lot and of having accepted terms of the sale.

4. After conclusion of the sale, each purchaser shall pay the whole amount in cash to the officer conducting the sale and obtain in return from him a receipt vouching for the payment of the value.

5. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this rule, the officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to auction the articles purchased by the defaulter who shall be required to make good any loss but shall not participate in any profit from such sale. The amount due by such defaulter on account of loss from resale shall be recovered from him.
